"The Walk"

An African-American Tribute

We can't pretend to walk a mile in their shoes, but we can walk this pathway and learn their stories to honor and give thanks for all they did and for who they were. Our desire is to make "The Walk" a place of peace, learning, contemplation and celebration.

Be a Part of History! Adopt a Brick or a Section of the Memorial Walkway

Bricks will bear the name, age and plantation of 6,000 persons enslaved in Liberty County , Georgia , in 1860.

$50.00 funds one engraved brick.

$125.00 funds one square – yard of walkway including one engraved brick.

Both donation levels include membership in LeConte - Woodmanston Foundation.
